

KAHAKUHI O 'AINAHAU

"The Flame of 'Āinahau"

May (Mei) 2012

Pelekikena's Message

Aloha mai kakou,

Another month has passed bringing us closer to the Ho'olaule'a and `Aha`aina. We are busy preparing for both; planning our food and game booths, practicing hula and music, selecting costumes, buying fabric and much more. Mahalo to all of you who faithfully attend the practices to keep us on track. I'm sure kumu appreciates the extra practices on Monday evenings.

Movie Night "Then There Were None" was a BIG HIT, and many of you have asked for more. Mahalo to Ua Ho`opai and Pua Hao and their committee for planning a very successful event. Mahalo to all for supporting our fund raiser by attending the movie and donating and purchasing snacks and baked goods. All proceeds for Movie Night will go toward defraying costs for the Convention in October. We welcome your movie suggestions. Suggest a movie and we'll take it from there.

As part of our mission, `Ainahau strives to perpetuate and share our Hawaiian culture, and we did that on May 25th by performing at a luncheon for Long Beach Presbyterian Church. Mahalo to Paddy Kakahara and Maile Hubbard for coordinating the event and to all the musicians and hula dancers who performed. As a token of appreciation, we've been asked for a repeat performance.

In June, we will be attending the Na Lei Makalapua Council Meeting and King Kamehameha I Lei Draping in Washington, D.C. We will be visiting representatives at the Capitol and participating in other events along with gathering information on the annual Convention to be held in Washington, D.C. in October. We will report our findings when we return.

Summer is fast approaching and with summer comes heat and sun. Please remember to drink a lot of liquids and use sunscreen at the beach, park or whenever you are exposed to the sun. For those traveling on vacation enjoy your trip and travel safe. Na keiki, enjoy time away from school, but keep reading throughout the summer. Remember, our library has lots of books for all to read.

Mahalo for all you do for our club. I appreciate your time, effort and dedication in perpetuating our Hawaiian culture.

Malama pono, Charlene Kazner Pelekikena

Edye Hill First Vice-President

Aloha,

THE SUMMER SEASON is just around the corner and the "busy time" for AOKHCC is near. There will be festivals, hula practice, music practice, a retreat, and gardening. We are going to have so much fun. I always look forward to this time of year because even though we "work" at so many of these events, the truth is it is hardly "work" when you are having so many laughs with your fellow club members, giving back to the community, and spreading the Aloha Spirit.

I WANT TO THANK THE SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE for their time and efforts to encourage the education of our youth. All the fund-raising efforts and the time spent on the application process can be tedious, but so worth it to invest in our future. As for the applicants, it is really inspiring to witness the ambitions, determination and dedication of the younger generation.

THE CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE also deserves some recognition for getting this rather major project underway. Revisions of the Constitution, Bylaws and the Policies and Procedures of AOKHCC is a huge project that deserves attention to numerous details and some time to make careful considerations and recommendations. I am really grateful that there is so much passion for AOKHCC to enthusiastically undertake this important project. This will undoubtedly take a rather lengthy period of time to work through all the documents.

I AM STILL LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS to make a very brief "Sharing Time" presentation during the General Meeting. For Sharing Time, an ohana and/or individual can share a song, a story, or a hula. This will demonstrate our commitment to education about Hawaiian culture, music and dance. This is also a great opportunity to "tell stories" and practice some oral history. If you are interested, please let me know by e-mail at geoff_edye@sbcglobal.net. Don't be shy, with our mix of new and old members there is definitely a thirst for these stories, songs and hulas. Hula practice is well underway and after the monthly General Meetings, we will be having some Na Mea workshops to share the crafting talents of our club members, make some accessories for the hula dancers, and learn new some new skills. Keep any eye out for e-mail reminders and please join us in the fun!

NA MEA HOU KAHAKUHI O 'AINAHAU
Mei - 2012

*Hawaiian Word of the Day
Published with the permission of Liana Iaea Honda*

he momi e lei ai--a pearl to wear as a lei

Today's Hawaiian Pearl is: PALALE (PAH-LAH-LEH)

- 1. To speak imperfectly, as of one with a foreign accent or speech defect; to work in a disorderly, slipshod way; confusion.*
- 2. To drip, spatter, spill, fart.*

Once in a while I will come across a word that I don't know but I find very interesting and quite humorous. PALALE is a new one for me! And, I'm going to make an attempt to use it at least once everyday this week!. I think you should, too!

When I first looked at it I thought of myself, and how I must have a "foreign accent" when I speak in Hawaiian. After all, Hawaiian is a second language to me. And, then as I read the other meanings, I couldn't help but laugh to myself at how ALL the meanings are not very flattering. All the more reason to try them out in my daily usage of Hawaiian!

He mau 'ohua lemu kaumaha, he mau 'ope'ope palale. – heavy butted passengers farting bags. (HEY, I didn't make this up) This was a phrase found in Fornander's Hawaiian Antiquities, 4:577.

Aloha, Liana Iaea Honda

Aloha All, Mahalo to all this month's contributors. Check out yummy recipe from Ualani, Paddy's aha aina update, health information from Jane, along with her update on Association event coming up in October. The club has been busy this month and will be the rest of the year as referenced in both Charlene's and Edge's columns. We look forwarding to serving dessert and attending performance by Kamehameha band on June 5th in Huntington Beach and sending them off with spam musubi snack on June 9. Mahalo to Tom Kahirara for coordinating this event and the volunteers that will be making spam Musubi and serving dessert. Don't forget to sign up for Ohana Retreat!! It will be an outstanding event. Recent flyer/application sent as reminder. Any questions or to sign up, contact Charlene Kazner. Cell: (714) 290-8681 sevenkaz@aol.com

Aquarium of the Pacific
By Charlene Kazner

Join us this weekend, June 2nd and 3rd at the Aquarium of the Pacific's 9th Annual Pacific Islander Festival in Long Beach. `Ainahau will be there demonstrating Hawaiian Pandanus/Ti-Leaf weaving, Hawaiian tattoo and Hawaiian games, along with other Pacific Islanders sharing their culture through dance, song and cultural demonstrations. Contact Charlene Kazner for tickets.

At the festival, discover the rich and diverse cultures of the Pacific Islands through traditional craft demonstrations, ethnic cuisine, educational programs, storytelling, and an ocean of entertainment, including music and dance performances. Watch hula performances, listen to Tahitian drumming, try out ancient Hawaiian games, enjoy island cuisine, and admire artisans as they create traditional weavings. The ninth annual Pacific Islander Festival will feature various cultures, including Hawaiian, Fijian, Marshallese, Chamoru, Tahitian, Samoan, Tokelau, and Maori.

When: Saturday, June 2, 2012 | 9:00 AM–5:00 PM
Sunday, June 3, 2012 | 9:00 AM–5:00 PM

Cost Included with general admission to guests.

Aha`aina 2012
Coming Soon!
by Paddy Kakihara

Plans for our 30th annual Scholarship `Aha`aina on Saturday, August 11th are coming along well. The tickets are available, and quite a few tables are already sold. Even with the price increase from $30 to $35 this year, we are still hoping to sell 42+ tables again. Call Charlene for tickets, and get your checks in. This year, we are not holding any unpaid tickets at Will Call, so tickets must be paid for when ordered.

The program, with Kumu Ululani Cortez and Maile Hubbard promises to be a winner! The dancers and musicians have been practicing for over two months already and everyone is really enjoying the old time hapa-haole numbers. Eric is leading the music group this year, with the Judds, Mike and Lehua, Lori, and his folks joining in.

Aha`aina Committee members will be meeting after the General Meeting on Sunday, June 10th. Please plan to attend if you are in charge of a specific area. Right now, that includes: Program: Maile Hubbard; Food & Kitchen: BJ and many preparers: Jackie, Ellie, Paul, Jimmy, Joe, Tom, Eric, Agnes, Edye, Rose, JoAnn; Decorations: Lani, Maggie, Hoku; Bar: Artland; Tickets: Charlene; Scrip: Gil; Opportunity Drawing: Joanie; Scholarship: Maile Hill; etc., etc., etc.! Some of you are wearing more than one hat, I know. Come with any questions, needs, requests, etc. Mahalo for your willingness to preserve `Ainahau's goal of helping young people.

And, speaking of young people, the Scholarship Committee met on May 30th to go over the applications for our 2012 scholarships. Quite a few were turned in this year, so the job is a bit more complicated this time around. We will be holding interviews in June and will have a report and recommendation at the July meeting.

Aha`aina 2012

"Opportunity Drawing prizes needed. Sign up to donate a basket as a special prize---approx. $25 value. Tickets on sale at June and July meetings! Joan Burgeson, chair."

"Komen Celebrates Breast Cancer Survivors, Footsteps to the Promise Awards Luncheon and Fashion Show" will be held Sunday, June 10 at the Costa Mesa Country Club. "Footsteps" representing the journey the many breast cancer survivors take together towards the vision of a world without breast cancer. Everyone can participate in the luncheon by attending and sharing the celebration. Komen Orange County admires the strength of all those affected by breast cancer, PIHP's Pacific Islander Navigators Program led by Charlene Kazner, Pelekikena, AOHCC. Join us to celebrate Auntie Lita Fifita, Tongan, and Uncle Kaiwi Pang, Hawaiian, survivors as they share in the Fashion Show at Costa Mesa Country Club. If you missed the Pacific Islander Breast Cancer Survivors' celebration Saturday, April 28, please join us June 10. Tickets available online at: www.KomenOC

4th Annual Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month celebration held on Wednesday, May 9th, 2012 at Garden Grove Community Center. Every year, in collaboration with the Orange County Asian Pacific Islander Community Alliance (OCAPICA), the Office of Senator Lou Correa coordinated a special evening of cultural celebration to honor those who have contributed to the AA NHPI community during the month of May, which has been designated as national Asian and Pacific Islander Heritage Month since 1992 by President George H.W. Bush. Pacific Islander Health Partnership's Aloha Seniors shared their efforts, contributions, and achievements to the NHPI community, recognized three years ago by Senator Correa, was happy to share once more and perform at the event, joined by over twenty other Asian and Pacific Island organizations.

National NHPI Coalition: this month is historic as the NHPI Policy Summit was held in Sacramento with contributions by Calvin Chang, and other leaders addressing health, education, social justice, and related issues. Following the California A-PI Policy Summit in Washington DC, on May 6 – 9, 2012, Hawaiian Civic Clubs with Tee Furtado, Pelekikena, Kehau Butts, Director, Mainland Council, Assn. of Hawaiian Civic Clubs "Ka Lei Makalapua"; and Uncle Kaiwi Pang, founding Pelekikena, MCAHCC and PIHP, join 30 other NHPI leaders from across the US. During three intense days of White House briefing, Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus sessions, Dept. of Health & Human Services and CENSUS reports, the National NHPI Coalition presented the NHPI Policy Platform Blueprint that includes: education, health, civil rights, economic justice, housing recommendations. The gathering was led by Sefa Aina, Samoan Co-Chair Commissioner, Asian Pacific Islander White House Commission, with air flights generously sponsored by Southwest Airline. Uncle Kaiwi Pang, joined by thirty other AA NHPI Congressional leaders met with President Obama for a photo shoot. He later present his lei wiliwili to the President sharing "lei wiliwili symbolizes the strong ties that bind YOU (the President) with Hawai'i and the Pacific." The President graciously accept the lei, giving the audience a simple "mahalo" smile and a shaka sign later at the Gala Dinner of over 1000 Congressional members, National CAPACD, and other Asian American Pacific Islander national organizations. AOKHCC has a copy of the NHPI Policy Platform Blueprint for your review, contact Charlene Kazner, Pelekikena.

KOLOHE LUNCH CALENDAR

Out to LUNCH!

Crispy Gau Gee Recipe

- 1 lb. ground pork
- 1 can finely chopped water chestnut
- 3 tbsp. Lee Kum Kee black bean garlic sauce
- 3 green onion stalks finely chopped
- 1 tbsp. finely chopped cilantro or Chinese Parsley
- 1 pkg. won ton wrappers

1 egg white

Oil for deep frying

Dipping Sauces

Sweet chili sauce

Ponzu with hot chili added

Hot mustard

Fold all ingredients in with the ground pork and mix well.

Take ½ tbsp. of mixture placed in the center of the wrapper.

Use index finger dipped in egg white to outline the edges of the wrapper.

Fold wrapper in half and press edges to seal.

Heat oil and test to be sure hot enough before dropping gau gee in:

Test by dropping a small portion of pork or the wrapper in the oil.

If tiny bubbles appear around the edges of the item the oil is ready.

If no bubbles appear wait a little longer for the oil to heat up.

When wrappers turn golden brown, remove promptly.

Allow to cool slightly before eating as the center holds the heat and can burn.

It must have been shrimp day – everyone ordered dishes with shrimp except the Colonel who went for Mongolian Beef and Gil had scallops. DELICIOUS! We even had dessert—sesame mochi balls.

Of course “no calories” in what we ate! Gil, Lani, Rose, Julian and myself in between our own conversations set up more Wednesday luncheons for June 13, 2012—Macaroni Grill at Bella Terra in Huntington Beach and on June 27th the next Kolohe at Fujiyama (see above).

Come join us in June and share the camaraderie!

As mentioned in our e-mail of May 23, 2012, we had another busy get together on Tuesday, May 22, 2012 of pruning and planting new items such as bok choy, white squash, more cilantro, parsley, red beet, long eggplant. Can't wait to see how our garden has progressed—should have zucchini, tomatoes and bell peppers ready to harvest. We re-directed the sweet potato so it should have more sun exposure. The kalo is coming along too.

The Hawaiian Newspaper Initiative
'Ike Ku'oko'a – Awaiaulu by Charlene Kazner
By Charlene Kazner

Over 125,000 pages Of Hawaiian language newspapers were printed from 1834 to 1948. These papers were an intentional repository of global and local news, politics, science, history, commerce, entertainment, and opinion as Hawai'i moved through kingdom, monarchy, republic and territorial periods. Only 2% of this repository is known and used today. 'Ike Ku'oko'a is a global project to make the entire collection word-searchable.

Do you want to learn how to get involved in this project and be a part of history? Join us on Monday, June 4th at 6:00 pm at the Costa Mesa Senior Center, 695 W. 19th Street in Costa Mesa and we'll show you how to get started. Bring your laptop and we'll show you how to download the newspaper page onto your computer, including your desktop if you don't have a laptop. It only takes a few minutes to get you going. You can also go to www.awaiaulu.org and view the "How to Video" which will give you step by step instructions. No Hawaiian language skill is necessary.

Mana – The Hawaiian Magazine
A Fund Raiser for 'Ainahau
By Charlene Kazner

Mana is a bi-monthly independent magazine for the Hawaiian community. Mana celebrates Hawaiians and their culture. It helps create a sense of community and inspires people to engage in that community while celebrating its heritage, language, art, music and people. Mana is not the voice of the Hawaiian community; it is a voice in the Hawaiian community. It is a magazine written by and for the indigenous Hawaiian community.

I read the first Mana Magazine over the weekend and enjoyed it. One of the articles covered the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs Convention at Turtle Bay last October, and delegates from 'Ainahau and other clubs were pictured in the article. Mana Magazine is offering an opportunity to all Hawaiian Civic Clubs to fundraise via subscriptions from members, their 'ohana, friends, associates, coworkers, etc. Please help 'Ainahau raise funds to support our members at the Association's Annual Convention in Washington, D.C. in October. Simply go to <https://www1.mymanamagazine.com/content/subscribe-mana-magazine>. Enter AINAHCC (all caps, no space) as your Promo Code. You must enter the Promo Code in order for 'Ainahau to receive credit. Continue with your subscription selection then SUBMIT. 'Ainahau will receive $10, $15 or $20 - 50% from each subscription. Each subscription will ensure that 'Ainahau can continue the good work of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs.

'Kamehameha Day — June 11

Kamehameha Day on June 11 is a public holiday of the state of Hawaii in the United States. It honors Kamehameha the Great, the monarch who first established the unified Kingdom of Hawai'i — comprising the Hawaiian Islands of Ni'ihau, Kaua'i, O'ahu, Moloka'i, Lāna'i, Kaho'olawe, Maui and Hawai'i. While he was king, Hawaii was a center of the fur and sandalwood trade. Pineapples were brought to Hawaii from Spain in 1813 and coffee was first planted in 1818, a year before he died. In 1883 a statue of King Kamehameha I was dedicated in Honolulu by King David Kalākaua (this was duplicate, because the original statue was lost at sea). There is another duplicate of this statue in Emancipation Hall at the Capitol Visitor Center in Washington, D.C.
