Aloha mai kakou,
I HOPE YOU have all had a great summer. Our summer was sure busy with the `Ohana Retreat in June, the Alondra Park Ho`olaule`a in July and the `Aha`aina in August. I hope you were able to spend some vacation time with your `ohana in between our many activities.

WE FINALLY HAVE A 2ND VICE PRESIDENT. Congratulations to Ualani Ho`opai who was elected as our 2nd Vice President at the September General Meeting. Throughout the year, Ualani has accepted the responsibility for many of the 2nd VP's events and activities so it is a natural fit. We are blessed to have her as a member, and now our 2nd Vice President. Imua, Ualani.

THE PACIFIC ISLANDER Festival at the Huntington Beach Central Library Park on September 15th and 16th was a BIG SUCCESS. Saturday was uncomfortably hot, but Sunday graced us with a breeze typical of Huntington Beach. Our menu of lau lau, rice, poi, loco moco, spam musubi and watermelon was a “Hit.” We sold out of everything. Mahalo to all of you who helped with the festival and to those who sang on Sunday morning. We couldn't have done it without you.

E KOMO MAI……join us on Saturday, October 6th for our annual Pau Hana Bash at the Newport Aquatic Center to Mahalo everyone for the hard work done this year. Please see article in this newsletter for additional information on the bash.

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION for the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs is fast approaching. It will be held in Washington, D.C. on October 14 – 21. There are eleven of us attending this year and we are looking forward to it. We will share our experience with you when we get back. I HOPE TO SEE YOU at the Pau Hana Bash. Mahalo for all you do to uphold our Mission……to preserve and practice our Hawaiian culture.

Ma ka hana ka `ike.....In working one learns (`Ōlelo No`eau 2088)
Today's Hawaiian Word is: KAUHUKI (Kah-ee who-key) Sea with strong current; undertow. The nalu, or surf, is up in Hawai'i!! Only the brave (and crazy) are venturing out into 20+ foot swells on the north shores. Today's momi consists of two separate words: Kai, which refers to the ocean or sea, and Huki, which means to pull or tug (remember playing hukihuki? Tug of War). That is a good description of an undertow because once you get caught in that undertow or strong current it feels like some massive force is doing a tug of war with you as you try your hardest to get back to shore. Beware of the Kai Huki as you go in or near the ocean!

E maka'ala i ke kai huki - beware of the strong current.

Doesn't this remind you of Makapu'u Beach (near Sandy Beach). The surf always seemed to be high and there definitely was an undertow. But, just staying close to shore, it was fun jumping in and out of those waves. Ah such good kid time memories.

Aloha Jackie

Aloha All,

Recently an e-mail was sent highlighting happenings at General meeting of September 23, 2012. For those who do not get e-mail or may have missed reading it, I’m setting forth information below:

We are happy to announce we now have a Second Vice President elected: Ualani Ho’opai!!! Congratulations!

We have three open positions for Director. The following were nominated: Maile Hubbard and Lori Carter-Matthews. We will be taking more nominations at the November and December general meetings and voting in December. Please contact Gil Kveen if you would like to nominate anyone. Please obtain approval from nominee before nominating.

UPCOMING PAU HANA BASH:

Gil has offered to provide his Duffy Boat for members to ride in at this event. At the Pau Hana event, please bring your instruments as there will be kanikapila entertainment.

PRINCE KUHIO COMMEMORATIVE STAMP PETITION: A copy of a petition to have a commemorative stamp made of Prince Kuhio was e-mailed. For those that would like a copy, please let me know.

NEXT GENERAL MEETING: There will be no General Meeting in October due to the Convention in Washington D. C.

FUTURE EVENT: Please mark your calendars for January 22, 23 or 24, 2013 for an upcoming exciting event still in the planning stages!! Aloha Maggie
Breast Cancer: October is Breast Health Awareness Month

Decked in PINK, Sunday, Sept. 23, at Newport Fashion Island, Koku4Cure Team #3000, included Āinahau o Kaleponi HCC members and ‘ohana: Charlene and Dennis Kazner, Millani Awana, Laura & Kealoha Kakhihara, Maggie Perry, Leah & Erik Beck, Kawai, Kā`ala, Kamekona & Kiana Pang, Quintin Vaughn, Grace & Esther Yamashiro, partners “Serve the People” Clinic with Dr. Dimitri Sirakoff, his wife and staff. Special mahalo go to the Hubbard and Eric Kakhihara ‘Ohana for plumeria for 29 leis made by Edye Hill, Maggie Perry, Ualani Hoopai and Charlene Kazner for our Team 3000 members, Komen OC staff and ‘ohana. More than 18,000 registered participants, 1,300 volunteers, and over 1,300 breast cancer survivors and their families participated in our 21st annual Komen Orange County Race for the Cure. The day was inspiring, amazing and beautiful and we can’t thank you enough for being part of Komen’s vision of a world without breast cancer. 75% of funds raised at the Komen Orange County Race for the Cure help support local breast health outreach, screening coordination, mammography for women in need and treatment services to underserved women in the community. 25% of the funds raised go directly into the Komen Global Research Fund to energize science to find the cure. PIHP sponsors a FREE Mammogram Event, Saturday, 8am – noon at Costa Mesa Senior Center. Pre-Registration required! See attached flyer for more details and to call for appointments.

One in eight women will be diagnosed with breast cancer in her lifetime. The greatest risk factors for breast cancer are being female and growing older. Oftentimes, the biggest barriers to receiving health care can be lack of resources. The funds raised at the Race help us serve women and save lives!

Mahalo nui loa to Team #3000, who in addition to Registration fees, Team #3000 members have raised over $2000 additional funds, with fund raising continues to the end of October!

September 24-25, at the Westin Hotel, LAX, Charlene Kazner, Ualani Hoopai, Kā`ala & Kawai Pang, joined 28 other Native Hawaiians from HCCs, OHA, UH Dept. of Native Hawaiian Health, other Hawaiian and Pacific Islander health providers from across the continent and Hawai‘i, and the Pacific for “Envision the Future Conference 2012-Translating Research into Healthy Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander Communities“. This two day conference of data sharing, research activities, Pacific peoples health initiatives provided participants with data and resources to develop interventions to improve the health and wellbeing of our island communities. A special meeting with Dr. Howard Koh, Asst. Secretary for Health, US Dept. Health and Human Services, DC, to share specific community issues, needs and strategies to improving health for NHPI communities in Southern California. Mahalo nui loa to OHA for sponsoring our Native Hawaiian delegation attending this historic conference.

Broccoli Parmesan Fritters

3 Cups fresh broccoli chopped to ½” length - (or any kind of mixed vegetables - sometimes I use the frozen ones when real lazy)
1 large egg
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/3 cup finely grated parmesan cheese
1 small clove garlic, minced
1/2 teaspoon Kosher salt, plus more to taste
A pinch of red pepper flakes or several grinds of black pepper
Olive or vegetable oil for frying

STEAM BROCCOLI until tender but not mushy
Drain, then set it aside to cool slightly

IN A LARGE BOWL, lightly beat your egg, flour, cheese, garlic, salt and pepper
Add the somewhat cooled broccoli, mash just a bit. Stir all ingredients together with a spoon. Adjust seasonings to taste.

HEAT IN A LARGE, HEAVY SKILLET over moderate heat, add 2 to 3 tbl. spn oil (mixture of olive and vegetable oil). When hot, scoop a two tablespoon-size of the batter and drop it into the pan. Flatten slightly with spoon or spatula. Repeat with additional batter, leaving a couple inches between each.

ONCE BROWNED UNDERNEATH, about 2 to 3 minutes, flip each fritter and cook on the other side until equally golden, about another 1 to 2 minutes.
Transfer briefly to paper towels to drain

GARNISH WITH ALL KINDS OF GOOD STUFF - 1cup plain yogurt to 2-tbspn lemon juice and garlic or a fried egg or just plain ketchup.

Yum...onolicious Kanani

Aloha,

My name is Eric Kakihara, and I am enjoying my 2nd term as your Treasurer. Previous to this position I served 2 terms as the 2nd Vice President, & a one year term as Board Member. But probably my most prized title has been “President of the Rice” a position I have held for 8 years now, although there is a new candidate coming up the ranks.

Agnes & I have been married for twelve wonderful years. Boomie, who is finishing up her last year at Emerson College in Boston is the youngest, Myra lives in Brooklyn, New York & works at Apple, & Edye, married to Geoff, both practice law at firms in Orange County. If you have come to an Ainahau event in the last 6 years or so, you’ve seen probably at least 3 of us… AOKHCC has been a wonderful ‘excuse’ for our family to spend time together! Whether it be a board meeting, Ho`olaulea, or at Hula practice, the Club has truly been a blessing to not only to the Kids, Agnes & I, but also to our extended family, Gram & Gramps (Tom & Paddy Kakihara) & my nieces & nephews. What a wonderful thing it is to serve and learn about our culture together. Being able to sing He Hawai`i Au with Dad and my brother, while three generations of Kakihara girls (and boys!) dance hula still continues to warm my heart, (well, almost as much as it does to sing & dance Ka`aahi Kahului)!

Serving under Aunty Jackie, Uncle John, Analani, & now Charlene, it has been my privilege to be a part of this club. I look forward to what the future has in store for all of us!

Annie Kaaa Marks Century Milestone with 250 guests. Annie Leihulu Ikuwa Kaaa celebrated her 100th birthday with some 250 well-wishers earlier this month at Masa’s Cafeteria. IT WAS joyous at Annie Leihulu Ikuwa Kaaa’s 100th birthday party Sept. 16 at Masa’s Cafeteria. She is also called Ane, Tutu and Mrs. Clean. Some 250 people showed up to wish Annie well. Annie danced hula to "Lovely Hula Hands." Her niece Marlene Sai sang "I Love You" to her. Lehua Kalima sang "You've Got a Friend" and guests sang along to their dear friend. Other performers included LowDown with Dennis Wong, John "Doza" Enos and Alikia Watts; Ekolu Makou, made up of sisters Francine Gora, Nohea Gora Leopoldo and Imiola Gora-Aina; Shawn Pimental; Kawika Trask; and the "Hawaiian Girls Golf Club" singers and dancers. Granddaughter Denise Kaaa said Annie always says, "Work hard and clean, clean, clean. (That's where the "Mrs. Clean" comes in.) Don't sit around and do nothing. No idling." Denise said she, her mom Karlotta Kaaa and Tutu live on a four-story hillside house in Kalawahine Streamside, below Papakolea. Up until a few months ago they stopped Annie from walking down the stair levels to the yard. "She's very independent and never wants help," Denise said. "She'll say, 'I can I can do it myself.' She can never sit still. If you are eating she may grab your plate and wash it before you even realize it." What a gal! …
