

KAHAKUHI O 'AINAHAU

"The Flame of 'Āinahau"

Pelekikena's Message
Charlene Kazner

Aloha mai kakou,
AS I REFLECT ON 'Āinahau's history over the last 31 years, I am humbled to hold the position of your Pelekikena. Many have served the office before me and through their leadership, 'Āinahau has prospered to one of the more active Civic Clubs in the Association. As members of 'Āinahau, we carry out our motto E Malama ia Na Pono O Ka`aina E Na `Opio – The Culture of the Land is Preserved in Its Youth by sharing and participating in the numerous events and activities our club has to offer, many of which were started by our past leaders. Let us all malama the treasured gifts from them who still continue to guide us. Let us also remember some of our core values that identify us as Hawaiians – ALOHA: love/affection, caring, compassion; KŌKUA: help, assist, comfort, support; and KULEANA: privilege, responsibility. Join us for our monthly general membership meetings and the many activities we have planned to share in perpetuating and practicing our culture. The dates are included in this newsletter.

HULA PRACTICE has started for the 'Aha`aina on August 10th. It is also another great way to share and practice our culture. Come and be a part of the fun.....Thursday's at 7:00pm at Wintersburg Presbyterian Church, 2000 N. Fairview Ave., Santa Ana. Mahalo to Kumu Ululani Cortez for her kokua. HAWAII MAOLI has awarded us a Ho`olako Grant for $1,500 for Phase II of our Community Garden. Soon, we will start planting our new crop. Stay tuned for more information. WE NEED YOUR KOKUA in chairing and/or serving on the many committees of our club. A list of the committees is included in this newsletter. These committees help us thrive and your mana'o is key to our success ...share it with us.

Pupukahi I holomua – By working together, we make progress.

Malama pono, Charlene Kazner Pelekikena

First Vice-President

Aloha AOKHCC Ohana,
I WANT TO THANK all those members who remembered to send in their dues in a timely fashion. We have just over 34 paid membership thus far. For those who have not sent in their dues yet, the deadline of April 1 is looming so get your membership dues in right away!

ALSO IF YOU NEED to change your contact information, please fill out a renewal form so we have the right address, phone number and e-mail information. You certainly do not want to miss out on all the fun.

HULA PRACTICE IS starting up again this month and I am so grateful that Kumu donates her time and tremendous talent to go over the hula basics. It is also good to see all my hula sisters and work those muscles. If you have any interest in learning to dance, come and join the fun with us. I know that so many of our members have wonderful talents and great skills to share. If you have craft for the Na Mea workshop, a story to tell, or a song to sing for sharing time, please send me an e-mail. Malama pono, Edye Hill

Hope Pelekikena 'Ekahi

Note from the Editor
Maggie Perry

Aloha All, Charlene expressed it perfectly—we do need your kokua for chairing and serving on committees—please see page 5. Always have informative articles by our main contributors—your dedication is much appreciated! Mahalo to my niece, Leialoha for doing the Member Profile! I recall back when I had to entice her to join and now she loves it. I have attached pictures Ualani took at mainland convention and also some I took of our wonderful kupuna—take a look. Please e-mail me should you like to do the profiles for future articles. Charlene's recipe sounds onto—anyone else who has a favorite to share (I know you are out there!), please let me know. Remember you don't have to be in California to be a member (like me)! We have members all over the country — your membership is tax deductible and so cheap!! Application attached. Until Next Month!!! Malama pono, MAGS

he momi e lei ai--a pearl to wear as a lei

Today's Hawaiian Pearl is:
PIULA (pee-you-lah)

You would use piula for mule or donkey only on Moloka'i. It's a Moloka'i word (dialectic difference). I'm not sure how the card game is played, but I do know that I hear piula all the time referring to being totally wiped-out exhausted. "Piula already!" "I stay all piula." "Ho ka piula!"

This is a word you could start using today! Add it to your everyday vocabulary. Go outside, mow that yard at full speed or do that tae bo video that's been sitting in the cabinet too long. Then when you're all done, say, "Piula"

As for the game of "donkey" don't you remember that this was about the first card game you learned? That way, if you knew this game you could play with the adults and feel like a "big person". Everybody knew how to play Donkey!

Aloha mai kakou –

February is just about done and 2013 is rapidly flying by and I wanted to share that February also marked the beginning of planning for our next annual ‘Aha ‘aina event. The theme is still being tweaked as we speak but the weekly gatherings for hula practice have begun. Starting first, with a refresher to be sure we don’t forget those songs done in previous years. The second session will be a “hula basics” class to reacquaint ourselves to the movements, but more importantly to begin the bonding and unification process after the long winter break. This “jelling” is often overlooked or taken for granted but is an important component to the quality of a cohesive unit and a good show.

Each year there are on average 20 sessions in which Kumu (Aunty Ulu) teaches and guides the dancers before the August performance, with numerous additional sessions that take place around town depending on schedules and availability. To some this may seem like a lot however we are all doing this because we love the Hawaiian culture and sharing it with others. Furthermore what a bonus, to do what we love and be able to raise scholarship funds to support others who share the same interest and will hopefully go on to pay it forward.

I am excited and hope you are too about starting this new hula season and I look forward to rekindling and building new relationships with my hula sisters, brothers, and musicians.

Mahalo for your time and dedication to the culture, the club, and each other, we are all beneficiaries.
A hui hou, Ualani

P.S. - Aunty Paddy has been chairing this ‘aha ‘aina committee for many, many years and has graciously agreed to guide her successor. If you would be willing to chair this committee with her support please let us know as jumping in at the front end is always easier than trying to play catch up later. Mahalo!

P.S.S. – Linda McElrea has gratefully agreed to chair our bake sales for this year. The first will be Sunday, April 28 & the second Sunday, November 17. If you would be interested in participating by providing bake goods, helping the day before with prep or the day of, OR all of the above please contact Linda at: 714-894-8817 or linda.mcelrea1@verizon.net Mahalo!

Member Profile
Leialoha McEwan

Aloha Fellow 'Āinahau Members,

As I love 'Āinahau and all it represents, I am happy to share a bit about myself and my family ancestry. I was given the name Laura Leialohaleimakmae ("When I look upon you I see a wreath of Love" given to my mother by Nona Beamer.) I presently work as a board certified nurse practitioner in Seal Beach and enjoy the work tremendously. I previously attended the University of Hawaii, Pasadena City College and California State University of Los Angeles for undergrad studies and graduated from the University of Phoenix with a master's degree of science in nursing and family nurse practitioner and was invited to the Honor Society of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau International for academic achievements. Prior to becoming a certified nurse practitioner, I had over 20 years of nursing experience in pediatric intensive care, emergency and critical care transport.

My family history is fascinating to me as my great grandfather on my grandfather's side, Ricardo Pereria was a "stow away" on a ship to Hawaii from Madeira, Portugal and met my great grandmother, Maria Fernandes on the ship and later they were married and had seven children. On my grandmother's side, my great grandfather originally from the Philippines - Domingo Galang married Hattie Kaaua who was pure Hawaiian and they had six children. Their daughter, Louisiana, married my grandfather, Richard, and they had six children also. Their daughter Melia Pua Nani shared the Hawaiian culture with me at an early age teaching me the hula. She previously danced hula for Kumu Nona Beamer and taught classes for awhile when I was very young. My heritage is as rich as the islands with a cultural mix of Hawaiian, Portuguese, Filipino and Caucasian.

My life has an added dimension with the addition of 'Āinahau" and all it brings. I enjoy experiencing our Hawaiian culture and the camaraderie and aloha spirit especially shared in the months leading up to aha aina and other events shared with our 'Āinahau Ohana.

My other enjoyments are playing beach volleyball, surfing, snowboarding, travel, spending time with my family and an active beach life with my husband, Randy, our friends and our Labrador retrievers pictured here.

Look forward to sharing more fond memories and good works that the members of 'Āinahau continue to support.

Aloha Pumehana, Leialoha
