"The Flame of 'Ainaha"

Pelekikena's
Message
Charlene Kazner

Aloha mai kakou,
THIS MONTH, MARCH, we celebrate Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole Pi'ikoi's birthday. Prince Kuhio founded the first Hawaiian Civic Club on December 7, 1918. He was often called Ke Ali'i Makaainana (Prince of the People) and is well known for his efforts to preserve and strengthen the Hawaiian people (see article on Prince Kuhio in this issue of Kahakuhi O 'Ainaha). Hau'oli La Hanau Prince Kuhio!

WORK ON OUR COMMUNITY GARDEN, Uncle Likeke's Kihapai, will start on Saturday, March 30th. Uncle Steve Fifita, our gardening consultant, will be there once again to help us prepare the soil and plant our fruits, vegetables and herbs. Lani Ryan has agreed to be co-chair with Maile Hill. Kalo from our kalo patch is just starting to bud, among the weeds, so we have a lot of weeding to do. If you would like to start your own garden, please let us know. A portion of the grant funds we received from Hawai'i Maoli is for individual gardens for our members. They can be in garden boxes, pots or in the ground. Spring is the best time to garden.

MAHALO TO TOM Kakihara for coordinating the luncheon for Kapa'a Middle School Ukulele Band and also to the members who helped serve the 75 students and chaperones from Kaua'i. I hope you all enjoyed the kulolo and taro-banana bread they gave us...very, very ono. It is always a joy to serve na keiki and na 'opio from back home.

CHECK THE CALENDAR for the dates of our upcoming events and join us for good fun, good food and good company. Our next General Membership Meeting is on Sunday, April 21st at 2:00 p.m. at F&M Bank in Seal Beach. Come and see a special film of one of our members. You won't want to miss it!!!!!!!

Mahalo nui for all the good work you are all doing. It is appreciated.

Happy Easter from my 'ohana to yours.....

Me ke aloha,

Edye Hill
First Vice-President

Aloha AOKHCC Ohana,
WE ARE GEARING up for busy summer season and I can't wait to have fun volunteering for our community and sharing laughs with all of you.

THE 2013 AOKHCC Scholarship Application has been revised and is now available. If you are interested in obtaining a copy of the application, please feel free to e-mail me. The deadline is May 1, 2013.

IF YOU HAVE NOT HEARD, Boomie (one of our scholarship recipients), is hosting a Hawaiian Music Show on Wednesday from 11a.m. to 2 p.m. (California time) from the Emerson College Radio Station, WECB. They live stream her radio station through the internet, just Google search for "WECB FM" and you will find a link on the homepage to listen to the radio station live. Boomie plays Hawaiian Music and has already made mention of AOKHCC on the air.

WE ARE STILL COLLECTING membership dues. You do not need to fill out an application if your contact information has not changed. Otherwise, if you need to change your contact information, please fill out a renewal form so we have the right address, phone number and e-mail information.

WE ARE STILL looking for members to participate in sharing time during the General Meetings. I know that so many of our members have wonderful talents and great skills to share. If you have craft for the Na Mea workshop, a story to tell, or a song to sing for Sharing Time, please send me an e-mail. Malama pono, Edye

by Jackie Judd

Hawaiian Word of the Day

Published with the permission of Liana Iaea Honda he momi e lei ai--a pearl to wear as a lei

Today's Hawaiian Pearl is: AHONU – Patience; patient; enduring; long suffering; to tolerate.

Most of us know the word for patience to be "ho'omanawanui," but ahonui is quite common too. It's interesting how Hawaiian's view patience. Ahonui literally means "great breath" (aho – breath). The breath is very important in traditional Hawaiians. Traditionally in Polynesia, when greeting one another people "honi" or smell, touching nose to nose...passing breath. When a kahuna was on his deathbed, he would breathe his last breath to his foremost student, passing on the last bit of hidden knowledge. It is interesting how they view patience as taking a great big breath and likening that to patience.
Sometimes we get so bogged down with so many tasks, sometimes very difficult ones. We need to remember to "ahonui" patience, enduring, to tolerate. Sample: 'O kou ahonui kai ho'omakua mai nei ia'u.—Your gentleness (patience with me) has made me great.

Aloha Kakou, Mahalo Nui Loa to this month's contributors. Great Health Article by Jane and see attached flyer. Our members have a treat this month with an interesting Member Profile by Keoni DeFranco. He has already shown himself to be a hard working and dedicated member although from a long distance having worked at the convention in Washington with delegates and living in New York. For KauKau Korner this month, we have an ono and healthy recipe from Leialoha McEwan.
Also added column about Prince Kuhio in honor of his birthday this month. Keep

Celebration 2013

About Prince Jonah Kuhio Ka-lani-ana`ole

The royal union of Queen Ka-pi`o-lani's sister, Esther Kino`iki Ke-kaulike and David Ka-hale-pouli Pi`ikoi produced three sons, Edward Keli`i-a-honui, who died in his teens, David Ka-wanana-koa and Jonah Kuhio Ka-lani-ana`ole. While not too much is known of their father's lineage (he died in 1880), their mother's royal lineage is well known and respected. Jonah, later known as Prince Kuhio, was born on Kaua`i's south shore near Po`ipu Beach on March 26, 1872. His birthday is celebrated as a Hawai`i state holiday.

Brothers Jonah and David were adopted into the childless royal family and titled princes for life by David Ka-la-kaua. They were ali`i by right of descent from their great-grandfather Kaua`i's King Ka-umu-ali`i. Ka-wanana-koa and Ka-lani-ana`ole were the crown bearers at the coronation of Ka-la-kaua. The two young ali`i participated in many of the royal events, as Ka-la-kaua was grooming them for their future.

Prince Jonah Kuhio Ka-lani-ana`ole was a cultural hybrid. Hawaiian in appearance, name and loyalties, his overall attitude was a make-up of his education. He was primarily educated in California and England, and spent a year in Japan. Ka-la-kaua hoped that this would result in a marital alliance. Kuhio chose for his wife, Chiefess Elizabeth Ka-hanu Ka`auwai. Regrettably, the union was a love match that produced no children.

Unfortunately for Kuhio, all of his chances for ascending to the throne were dashed with the overthrow of the monarchy in 1893. Two years later, the prince, affectionately known as "Prince Cupid," a royalist, was arrested for treason for plotting a counter-revolutionary attempt. He spent the next two years in jail as a political prisoner. Upon his release, he and his wife traveled extensively throughout Europe and were treated as visiting royalty. He then returned home and on March 4, 1903, became the elected Republican delegate to the U.S. Congress.

Also in 1903, he reorganized the Royal Order of Kamehameha and was the founder of the first Hawaiian Civic Club.

In 1919, Kuhio sponsored a bill calling for Hawaiian statehood, a full forty years before it became a reality. In 1921, Kuhio stirred the emotions of Congress as he spoke of the decline of his people who numbered fewer than 24,000 in the 1920 census, believed to be about 10% of the former Native Hawaiian population. In 1921, President Harding signed the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act. Despite Kuhio's wishes, the Act contained high blood quantum requirements and leased the land instead of granting fee simple, making it a perpetual government institution. He served on the first Hawaiian Homes Commission starting on September 16, 1921.

Kuhio died in Honolulu in 1922 at the age of fifty. He was given a state funeral befitting an ali`i (king). After a week of mourning, he was buried at Mauna `Ala, the Royal Mausoleum in Nu`u-anu, O`ahu.

Truly a son of the islands, he dedicated his life to the future well-being of his people. He was also instrumental in launching international Hawaiian canoe racing, commissioning the construction of the first racing-purpose built outrigger canoe in 1906 by Kahuna Kalaiwa`a Moku`ohai (master canoe builder in Kona). Kuhio's canoe won championship races consecutively from 1907 through 1910. Many consider Kuhio the father of Hawaii canoe racing as an internationally recognized sport.

Health Column by Jane Pang

March is National Colorectal Cancer

Awareness Month: REMEMBER, if over 50 years old:

- ◆ Do it for your family & yourself
- ◆ Ask your doctor: What CRC test do I need?
- ◆ How soon will I know the results? How much do the tests cost?
- ◆ If anyone over 50 needs more information regarding CRC tests, please contact Charlene Kazner (714) 290-8681 or Ka`ala Pang, RN, (714) 968-1785; or email us with your questions: kaiwisplace@yahoo.com
- ◆ Colorectal screening: FOBT (fecal occult blood test), colonoscopy >50 years of age

Poison Prevention Week: March 18 – 24, 2012

First aid home treatment measures for suspected poisoning: Call a poison control center, hospital, or doctor immediately. National Poison Control Hotline 1-800-222-1222. Have the poison container with you so you can give complete information to the poison control center. Do not try to cause vomiting. If your poison control center recommends vomiting for a specific substance, follow their guidelines. The poison control center will be able to help you quickly if you have the following information ready:

Your name and phone number

The name, age, weight, and health status of the person who has been poisoned

Type of product. Read the brand name as it is written on the label. Include the list of ingredients and the company name and contact number, if it is available on the label

Amount of product involved in poisoning

Type of poison exposure—swallowed, inhaled, or in contact with the eyes or skin

Time of poisoning

Whether the person vomited

Any first aid measures taken

Your location and how far you are from an emergency medical facility

If the poison control center recommends medical evaluation, take the product container or substance and any stomach contents that the person vomited to help doctors determine the seriousness of the poisoning. Source: 2012 National Health Observances, National Health Information Center, Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Washington, DC.

Meryl Streep Promotes Screening in New Videos

CDC's Screen for Life: National Colorectal Cancer Action Campaign informs men and women aged 50 years old or older about the importance of regular screening for colorectal cancer. This year, Academy Award® winner Meryl Streep joins the Screen for Life campaign, appearing in new TV and radio public service announcements. She talks about how much there is in life that we can't control, but says "here's something we can: colorectal cancer." She describes her own screening experience, and urges men and women to get screened beginning at age 50.

Sesame Watercress Edamame Salad
with Sliced Ahi Steak

Dressing:

- 1 teaspoon Asian Chile paste (Sambal Oelek)
- 2 garlic cloves
- 2 tablespoons unseasoned rice vinegar
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 1-1/2 teaspoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon sesame oil
- ¼ cup vegetable oil
- 4 large scallions green onion, white and light green parts
- 1-1/2 cups of shelled Edamame (7oz) thawed
- 6 medium radishes, thinly sliced
- 1 bunch of watercress, thick stems discarded
- Sesame seeds for garnish

2 protein portions:

Ahi steaks, Tenderloin steaks or Pork loins

In blender, combine sambal oelek, garlic, vinegar, soy sauce, sugar with sesame oil and process until the dressing is smooth. Blend in the vegetable oil until it is incorporated.

Brush the scallions and steaks with dressing and season with salt and pepper. Grill or sear at high heat steaks and scallions about 5 minutes (rare) or longer to taste (well done if pork). Let rest 5 minutes, and then slice.

Cut the scallions into ½- inch pieces and transfer into bowl. Add Edamame radishes, watercress and 5 tablespoons of dressing and toss.

Mound the salad on plates and place the sliced steak alongside. Drizzle the remaining dressing over the steaks, sprinkle with sesame seeds and serve. So Ono!

*Sambal Oelek—sold in most Asian stores

Enjoy! Leilaloha

Aloha, my name is Michael Keoni DeFranco and I have been honored to join 'Ainahau this past year. My mother grew up in Kailua, my grandfather is from Ewa Beach and my grandmother is from Moloka'i. My great grandmother was a proud member of the Hawaiian Civic Club back on Moloka'i.

I was born in Fairfax County, VA where my grandfather relocated to after joining the military While I was born outside of my 'aina, we would take a trip once a year to visit our 'ohana on Big Island, Oahu or Moloka'i. It was the only place I felt both at home and accepted. In 2010, I graduated from Wesleyan University in Middletown, CT where I studied Nation Building. Why countries go to war, how they are created and what it takes to successfully operate one. I founded a technology startup 6 months before graduation which I named LUA Technologies (now Lua) in honor of our sacred Hawaiian martial art. Lua is a communications platform for mobile workforces. From computers, tablets and phones we allow disperse groups to stay connected over the course of their workflow. You can see more at getlua.com. We work with clients like the Brooklyn Nets, Beyonce, the producers of The Dark Knight Rises, Ebay Now, construction sites, hotels and more. We operate an 11 person company in the heart of NYC and have raised $4M in the last 8 months. I have been teaching myself business management along the way and will one day bring my experiences back to our 'aina to help young budding technology companies throughout Hawai'i to achieve their full potential. I know that one day Hawai'i Nei will rise back up to the empire it was before in the heart of the Pacific. With technology on our side, we have no margins. It is my obligation to my aumakua to uphold their honor and continuing carrying the flag of the proud Kanaka Maoli. I am honored to be associated with 'Ainahau and am here to learn from those much more experienced than me!

He po'i na kai uli kai ko'o, 'a'ohe hina pakoā.
