Aloha AOKHCC Ohana,

Wow! It was another great weekend at the Pacific Islander Festival in Huntington Beach. I think we made nearly 800 spam musubi and could not keep them in stock. Those were a really big hit with the crowd. Mahalo nui loa to all the members who came out to enjoy the beautiful weather and raise funds for the Club.

I know that many of us were really touched by last week’s movie night. Seeing the Eddie Aikau movie was so moving. Also I really loved the kalua pork, cabbage, haupia, and all the other goodies. It was a great time to get together, become enlightened, and eat some ono grinds.

Mark your calendars for the upcoming Pau Hana Bash on October 19 at the Huntington Beach Library Park. We will be back at the park, this time just to relax, talk story, and enjoy the day. I hope you see you there and bring a friend or two. The Pau Hana Bash is a great big mahalo to everyone who put so much effort and love into our Club. Don't miss out!

Malama pono, Edye Hill

Hope Pelekikena 'Ekahi
have ten delegates at the Convention. Safe travels to all and enjoy the Convention. Stay tuned.

Kaleponi PILI `Ohana, a nine month weight reduction and lifestyle intervention program, a partnership of PIHP and `Āinahau, starts Saturday, November 8th. Learn how to cook and eat nutritious meals and include physical exercise in our daily lives. See Kaʻala Pang’s article in this newsletter along with more information and the application on pages 6-7.

Don’t forget to mark your calendar for our Annual Christmas Party on Sunday, December 14th at Harborview Clubhouse in Huntington Beach.

Mahalo nui loa for all you do.
Malama pono,
Charlene Kazner

Aloha All,

A lot of information packed into this newsletter which I hope you all enjoy. It was a pleasure to be in HB for the weekend working with `Āinahau ohana at the festival. I also got to visit with the Judds too on Friday with fellow member Ruby Ann Justis. Their pictures will be included in the upcoming photo show I have started and awaiting more pictures to be added.

I look forward to receiving e-mails/calls for those attending the Pau Hana Bash ASAP to help in the early planning!

Kaleponi PILI `Ohana Project sounds awesome. Wished I lived in CA to be a participant!

Note information from Gil on page 8 for a fun filled evening to get in the Christmas spirit so get your reservations and checks in early!

BACKGROUND INFORMATION ABOUT EVENT BELOW:
The Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce Proudly Hosts the 106th Year of this Spectacular Holiday Tradition:

Join over a million viewers as you watch beautifully decorated yachts, boats, kayaks and canoes sail along the harbor in the 106th Annual Newport Beach Christmas Boat Parade. Hosted by the Commodores Club of the Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce, we invite you to celebrate this year as we feature the theme “Deck the Hulls with Bows of Jolly.”

The Event
Welcome to the Official Site for the Newport Beach Christmas Boat Parade. As Newport Beach’s Christmas Card to the world, the Newport Beach Christmas Boat Parade will set the harbor ablaze for five consecutive nights.

Beautiful multi-million dollar yachts, kayaks, canoes and other small boats will light up the harbor as a dazzling array of holiday lights and music fill the air at the Newport Beach Christmas Boat Parade. Many of the boats will be richly decorated with animated Christmas scenes accompanied by music and costumed carolers. Some boat owners in the past have spent over $50,000 to decorate their vessels for the event. The Christmas floats will wind their way some 14 miles around the harbor to give viewers in restaurants, yacht clubs, on public beaches, and in private homes an incredible sight that has delighted millions of people for a century.

The Newport Beach Christmas Boat Parade, which has been hailed as “one of the top ten holiday happenings in the nation” by the New York Times, is truly a magical holiday tradition for all ages. The parade continues to be a premier event during the holiday season in Southern California that brings joy and happiness to all that view it.

2014 Newport Beach Christmas Boat Parade Route
The 2014 Newport Beach Christmas Boat Parade will utilize the same starting and ending point as last year, located off Bay Island, and follow the same route.
