"The Flame of 'Āinahau"

CHARLENE KAZNER
Pelekikena
(President)

Aloha mai kakou,
THIS MONTH, we have many excellent articles. Please take the time to read all about what's happening in our club and in the community. Mahalo to all the article contributors.

IN MARCH, we celebrate the birthday of Prince Jonah Kūhi`o Kalaniana`ole Pi`ikoi who was born on March 26, 1871. We are proud of the founder of the Hawaiian Civic Club and we strive to continue his legacy. Hau`oli La Hanau, Prince Kūhi`o.

LAST WEEK, Uncle Victor Kaiwi Pang and I had the opportunity to travel to Washington, D.C. to attend the launch of "A Community of Contrasts," a Native Hawaiian Pacific Islander Demographic Report, the first fully disaggregated data analysis of NHPI across the United States. We were honored to have Congresswomen Tulsi Gabbard (Hawai`i), Judy Chu (California) and Colleen Hanabusa (Hawai`i) attend and speak at this historic legislative briefing of the report. There were at least 30 of us representing the Pacific Islanders from many different states across the nation. It was an honor for us to represent the Native Hawaiians. See article in this newsletter for more information.

ALSO INCLUDED in this newsletter is a profile of Aunty Mary Ann Kalama, founder of 'Āinahau O Kaleponi Hawaiian Civic Club. Although many of us have not had the privilege of her counsel and advice, she has left us the tools and mana`o to carry on her legacy. The Mary Ann Kalama Scholarship Fund continues to support Hawaiian cultural arts and education programs and civil engagement activities through AOKHCC. Mahalo nui loa Aunty Mary Ann for leaving us a loving legacy. Mahalo Uncle Kaiwi and Aunty Ka`ala for sharing your memories of Aunty.

Mahalo Maggie for doing such a great job on our newsletter, and Mahalo to all of you who share you mana`o in the newsletter. I am so proud of the work AOKHCC does for our

Aloha AOKHCC Ohana,

Easter is almost here and the musician group and the hula group will be performing at local community homes in Santa Ana and Long Beach. The community is so grateful for the Aloha spirit we bring and we are happy to share our culture with them. If you available, please join us for the fun!

This coming weekend AOKHCC will have a Hawaiian Games both at the Long Beach Aquarium for the Pacific. I hope you can drop by and see all the fun. It's another great opportunity to share our culture with the local community.

The due date for scholarship applications is May 1, 2014. The scholarship applications are ready and if you need one or know of a potential applicant, please e-mail me at edyehill@yahoo.com.

We had a great time at the ipu workshop and are so grateful to Auntie Ulu and Nani for helping all the novices figure out which ipu was best. AOKHCC members spent a lot of laughs thumping nearly all the ipu at the farm. It was a great time and the weather cooperated with us. Next up is the cleaning process. We can't wait to get started come April 12th.

MAI KE AKUA MAI KA MANA from God comes the power. Raised as a hanai punahele by her grand Uncle Samuel Kaelemakule Aki and Aunt Mary Aloikai Akina, Mary Ann Kauluwehipnapualeia ionakupuna Aki-Cain-Kalama, a descendent of Hawaiian chiefs, died as a result of acute leukemia, November 16, 1993, at age 89, following the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs annual Convention in Las Vegas, Nevada. Her grandfather Henry Kaiwi Aki, first Hawaiian tinsmith and owner of H.K. Aki & Co. opened in 1888. Aunty Mary Ann was the recipient of the 1991 Ka Ha Mai Kalahikiola Nali'i elua award, given in memory of "Papa Kala", Office of Hawaiian Affairs' first kahu.

AOKHCC Founder, Aunty Mary Ann received this most prestige award for her life experience of "keiki o ka 'āina" a lifetime of expressed preservation and perpetuation of nā mea Hawai'i, all things Hawaiian; an effective reflection of dignity and beauty found in the Hawaiians; a living model for the best that is Hawaiian; and, excellence and expertise in language, education, and other aspects of Hawaiian culture. Kupuna Kalama was a vocalist, part of a travelling troupe to the mainland touring in the late 1920's; did not neglect her education graduating as an educator from the University of Hawai'i, Mānoa, taught in Wahiawa; married Jim Cain who was stationed at Schofield Barracks, moved to California in 1935; met and married Uncle Noah Kalama, 1963, after her husband passed, a grammar school chum who brought outrigger canoe racing to California in 1950's; helped to sponsor the Kaleponi Outrigger Canoe Club (KOA) with Uncle Noah. As a manaleo native speaker, she continued her 'ōlelo Hawai'i Hawaiian language and cultural mana'o; provided a strong, positive influence among Hawaiians living in California and Nevada, founder of Āinahau o Kaleponi HCC (1982); founder and advocate for the Hawaiian Civic Club Movement, Nā Lei Makalapua Mainland Council of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs(1990); an instructor of Hawaiian language and cultural mana'o; provided a pu'u honua at her home in Costa Mesa where weary Hawaiian travelers find a home-away-from-home among Kupuna Kalama's lo'i kalo; kukui and pua melia trees, where her backyard imu underground oven, la'i ti-plants and mai'a banana, provided ingredients for Hawaiian fundraisers and hula practice. A worldwide traveler, she played competitive bridge, a retired successful businesswoman, a noted gourmet cook. As matriarch, she practiced all customary privileges and responsibilities, transmitting cultural beliefs, understanding, protocols and practices to all who sought her advice and counsel; provided traditional names to nā keiki and 'ōpio, children and young adults; respected and honored by not only the Hawaiian community, but celebrated by the communities-at-large.

Āinahau o Kaleponi HCC celebrates her legacy throughout all its Hawaiian programs, advocacy and other cultural arts activities throughout the year, through her 'Ohana: Thomas & Ellie Kalama, Kaiwi, Ka'ala, Keali'i kiamoku, Kamekona Pang, Everett Cain of Hemet and Betty Ann Bruno (Scheiner) of San Rafael, and their respective 'ohana members. Mary Ann Kalama Scholarship Fund continues to support Nā Mea Hawai'i cultural education programs throughout AOKHCC.

Ipu Workshop Part 1 Sharing Experience & Pictures March 22, 2014

Reflections from Some of the Participants

Reflections from Nani Busch:

Aloha e, Saturday was a great day for the gourd farm! I rode up with Kehau, her husband and granddaughter Ashlyn. The drive gave us an opportunity to get to know one another and to talk about our families.

When we arrived at the farm, the other members of 'Āinahau were already there. The group gathered and I explained what to look for when choosing a gourd. The many years of going to the gourd farm with Aunty Ulu has taught me a lot and I'm so grateful share her knowledge with the group.

You can find a gourd with a perfect shape, size, color and fit but has no life. And then there are gourds that may not be perfectly shaped, covered in dirt or may appear to have discoloration or blemishes but echo life with a simple pa'i.

I told the group to grab a cart and start filling their baskets with gourds that they thought would work. Once their cart was full, I checked each one. I showed them what to look for and separated their basket into two piles. The keepers and the throw backs. Unfortunately the first go around had more throw backs than keepers. But the more they went back to grab gourds, the better they got in selecting the gourds that would work. In the end, some had to make a big decision on which ones to take while others just decided to take all the ones they liked. I don't think anyone walked away with just one gourd.

I'm so excited for our next gathering on April 12th when we wash and clean our gourds. The washing is when you begin to see your gourd's true beauty. The washing itself is such a spiritual experience and I encourage all members, family and friends to join us. We can help those who have extra gourds to wash.

All in all, it was a great day and look forward to our next outing!

Manama pono, Nani Busch

Reflections from Jennell: Selecting the perfect gourds at the Welburn Gourd Farm was a test of patience as I thumped and inspected no less than 75 potential gourds. Mahalo Aunty Ulu and Nani for providing all of us with such a cultural experience.

Nani, your wealth of knowledge was invaluable, and very much appreciated. Thank you for taking your Saturday to help us. I'm excited to get started on the next step in creating my Ipu and Ipu Heke masterpiece. Aunty and Uncle, thank you for opening up your home and feeding us lunch. Aunty, I hope you continue to get stronger and we'll see you at hula

A big Mahalo to Linda for driving our carpool! Aloha, Jennell

Ipu Workshop Part 1 Sharing (Cont'd.)

Reflections from Linda McElrea: We had a wonderful day. Auntie Ulu was feeling better and greeted all of us as we arrived then opened her home to us with a light breakfast. Driving through the countryside was beautiful with all the trees and streams along the way. Leialoha, Ricki, Gil and Bebe met us at the gourd farm. Once there I was overwhelmed by the sight of all the gourds, even though I had been on their web site. The web site photos are awesome, but seeing it in person was amazing and fun to imagine what else I could learn to do with them. The variety was tremendous and just for your information, this is an ORGANIC farm and they go into the fields two to three times to turn the gourds as they dry (amazing considering they say each field has hundreds of thousands of gourds). Nani shared her knowledge of selecting the gourds and then guided us to our final selection. I tested so many shapes and sizes that they all started sounding alike! Thankfully Nani could still hear and visualize the final product. The drive each way allowed us to share stories and get to better know each other. We returned to Auntie's home where we were treated to a delightful lunch and continued to talk story. Such a wonderful experience and I am looking forward to the next steps of cleaning and cutting the gourds. Thanks to Nani and Auntie Ulu a grand time was had by all ! Linda

Jennell, Gil, Bebe, Leialoha, Ricki, Kathy Leilani, Linda, Lehua, Edye, Nani, Kehau and Ashlynn

Bebe & Gil shared they had a wonderful time too!

Aloha All,
Our second lunch at Dough-Dough's, Huntington Beach was as good or better than the first one. (Jay says that he has been there eight times!!) The food and the songs were just like being at Tutu's hale. If you haven't been there yet, make it a "MUST DO" soon. Tell LEO and CHERYL and TANIA (owners) that you are from 'Ainahau. I HAVE TO TELL YOU, THERE IS A REAL SHAVE ICE (AND ICE CREAM, TOO) RIGHT NEXT DOOR.

For the last Kolohe lunch in March, we went to Fujiyama, Newport Beach. Always good. I had a wicked LIVE scallop sashimi. Then it was served in the shell.

CHILI LUNCHEON FOR KA'PAA SCHOOL ON MARCH 14, 2014 BY TOM KAKIHARA

Aloha,

Well we served the Kapa'a Middle School Ukulele Band, all 70 of them (including the chaperones), a Brunch on Friday March 14, 2014.

The Band had just flew in on the "red eye" and came directly to Wintersburg Presbyterian Church. We had anticipated them to be at Brunch about 10:00a, but to save some kala, they changed their itinerary and arrived early, real early! No problem! We were able to accommodate them.

Of course, they were served Chili, Rice, Tossed Salad and Water. Some how they weren't as hungry as we thought they'd be. You know, almost 12 hours since their last full meal, we expected them to be famished! But someone mentioned after that it was perhaps the weariness of the plane ride and the hours of the flight that cause them not to be so hungry. But they were satisfied and so were we with the Brunch.

Again like last year, the kids were very grateful, cordial and respectful as they passed through the serving line. That made us so happy to be appreciated. Perfect responses to the word "Kokua"!

Oh, they also gave us a flat(?) of Kauai kulolo (the bes kine)! Our President said, "Instead of eating it here, lets take it to Sunday's Meeting!" Aaah, "no"! or was it, "No way! So Charlene brilliant as she is, compromised and said, "I'll cut it up for our workers and take the rest to the Meeting." We all agreed! Smart wahine dat one!

Our 10 members who did all the work were Eric and Agnes Kakihara, Linda McElrea our "boss", Charlene Kazner, Momi Bone,

Frances Okura, Lehua Swope, Mike Spatter, Artland Ka'ai and Tom Kakihara. Great workers all! Pau
