Aloha E 'Āinahau,
Well the 2nd half of the year has started and for whatever reason, it still seems that it's February. I'm going to just blame it on old age, but it might have something to do with us starting to pare down the events that 'Āinahau is involved in, and this year, we just aren't as busy as we used to be. In the past, we would have had 2 festivals in the books already, and looking forward to 3 more in the next 3 months. I'm not saying that there isn't anything going on, in fact, we are having hula and musicians practice every Thursday, Oli class/practice every other Tuesday, Board Meetings and General membership Meetings each once a month as well as planning and committee meetings just about every week... but I will say, just because we aren't doing as much, there is still a lot going on, AND most importantly there are quite a few new faces stepping up and getting involved, as well as some familiar faces taking on new roles. Music to my ears! I want to thank everyone for their involvement especially as we prepare for the Alondra Park Ho'olaulea in July, and our 37th Annual Scholarship Aha`aina in August. Speaking of familiar faces, there are a few faces that I haven't seen in a long time, I know many of you are busy and life has taken you to other places, but I you know where we are, and I invite you to come by and say aloha, it's always nice to see you and get caught up! With ALOHA and Mahalo,
Kupa`aokalehua Kakihara

Aloha!
Calling all members to invite someone new to one of `Āinahau's meetings and for volunteer opportunities. We are also in the midst of hula season. So we encourage new and renewing members to come to hula. There is still time for members to learn one or two dances. We are practicing on Tuesday nights at 6:30 p.m., at Wintersburg Church, 2000 N. Fairview Road, Santa Ana. See you there! Pua

Ho'olaule'a 2019

Aloha members!

It's that time again! 'Āinahau's biggest fundraiser of the year, the Alondra Park Ho'olaule'a, will be held July 20 and 21. As usual, we will need all the help we can get to serve our laulau plate and loco moco. Please let me know if you are available. The time slots are just suggestions to make planning easier. If you are unable to work those particular hours, let me know what works for you and we'll adjust---no problem. We need lots of help on Saturday early to get the wheels in motion, and on Sunday, we usually get real busy during the lunch hours.

We also need help with the preparation of the lomi salmon on Friday sometime. Unfortunately, the Wintersburg kitchen is not available (Vacation Bible School), so we are looking for another place. Any suggestions? We could probably do fine with a home kitchen if anyone would like to volunteer. Again, please let me know.

Work schedule times:

Friday, July 19: usually 8:00-noon - Place TBD
 Saturday, July 20: 9:00-1:00 or 1:00-5:00
 Sunday, July 21: 9:00-1:00 or 1:00 -5:00 (also clean and load up on Sunday about 3:30 - 6:00) Please email (pkakihara@yahoo.com) or text (714-724-9636)

Aloha everyone!

I hope that you have all been enjoying the springtime and that you are looking forward to the summer. If you are looking for something to do, between preparing for Ho'olaule'a and 'Aha Aina, how about trying out the Duolingo free app to learn 'Olelo? It really is quite fun and challenging. You will also have a feeling of pride as you work your way through the lessons, conquering the language of our aina.

Not quite that ambitious right now? Remember that we have some books that you could borrow at our next meeting. Here are a few titles:

Kaahumanu by Jane L. Silverman

This first full scaled biography of Kamehameha's favorite wife shows how much power she held and how she used it to improve the life of the makaainana, commoners, in their Kingdom. It is an easy and interesting book to read.

Polynesian Crafts Step by Step by June Sasaki:

This small, literally, step by step publication is not fancy but does cover several coconut leaf creations, lauhala baskets, mats, fans and bracelets, fish nets and Maori poi balls. Koa haole and haku lei are also shown. Feather headbands are shown but taking a class from Auntie Corey is probably better on that one.

Kamehameha and His Warrior Kekuhaipi'o by Reverend Stephen

Originally written in Hawaiian, this volume was translated by

Frances N. Frazier. This is a book about some of the brave deeds of warriors in the Kingdom, written so that people of the aina could remember, and take pride in, the ancestors of the land. Thoroughly documented with an extensive appendix, glossary, literature cited, index and chant index, this is not an easy read, but it is fascinating!

Hawaiian Music and Musicians edited by George S. Kanahale; An illustrated history, this book is an alphabetical listing of all things about Hawaiian music. Included is a discography (eh, I not dat akamai so I wen look up dis word and it mean a descriptive catalog of musical recordings, particularly of a particular performer or composer...dat Google real smart eh!). All the info you want to know about Hawaiian music, pre 1979, is in this book.

An Account of the Polynesian Race, its Origin and Migrations by Abraham Fornander This volume was printed in 1969 and includes all three original separate volumes. It was written, and originally published, in three volumes in 1878, 1880 and 1885. Detailed and showing the author's enormous effort of research and love for the Hawaiian people, this is a book that takes a dedicated reader to get through. The book covers the ancient history of the Hawaiian people to the time of Kamehameha I.

So, I will bring these books to the next general meeting June 15 if you want to borrow one.

Until then, aloha, Sharon

JUNE UPDATES
BY Jane Ka'ala Pang

June: Celebrate GOOD HEALTH is HAPPINESS

Happiness can be good for your health!

Take 15 minutes each week to focus on a positive event in your life and what allowed it to happen.

Perform a weekly act of kindness. This can create a greater sense of well-being and happiness.

Write a letter of gratitude to someone you never thanked, take time to personally deliver it to them.

When among people, strike up a conversation with someone new - get to know them better.

Write down 3 things that worked well for you each day for a week and why.

Take a 20 minutes walk and enjoy nature.

Give up something you love for a period of time, enjoy the pleasure of it when you begin again.

“Take time out for life's enjoyment, optimism and life satisfaction.”

Enjoy your Summer!

Ways to keep well:

- Keep active, exercise daily, simple walking around your neighborhood
- Eat healthy: keep vegetables and fruits at least 50% of your meal
- Enjoy fibers, nuts, and other healthy foods as snacks
- Get enough sleep, at least five hours a day
- Keep your doctors appointments
- Keep up with your immunizations, remember annual flu shots and annual health screenings

Feature Article by Patty Hashimoto on Merrie Monarch Experience

Aloha 'Āinahau Members:

The 56th Annual Merrie Monarch Festival was held at the Edith Kanaka'ole Tennis Stadium in Hilo, Hawaii. On Thursday, April 25, 2019, at the Miss Aloha Hula competition there were 13 wahine who danced a kāhiko and an 'auana.

On Friday, April 26th, at the Kāhiko competition and on Saturday, April 27th, at the 'Auana competition, there were 19 wahine groups and 10 Kane groups competing. Each night of competition started at 6 p.m. and went on past 12 midnight. The awards ceremony was on Saturday night.

Prior to each day of competition, the Royal Court entered, Jason Chai Wilson and his wife Sharnell Kamila Wilson. Then, the National Anthem was sung, a Pule by Kahu Kaunaloa Boshard and the seven hula judges were introduced. The whole auditorium was filled with excited people and had a wonderful scent of flowers and maile leis.

As for me, it was an honor to see the world's best hula dancers compete! It was evident that each kumu hula and each haumana had practiced many hours and were eager to share the Hawaiian culture. I enjoyed watching all the hula styles, entrances, exits and amazing line formations! The wahine from my halau, Halau 'O Lilinoe, were the only halau competing from the mainland this year. They danced gracefully and wore beautiful costumes and adornments! I thought they did the best, of course!!
